

1. Defining team norms

Must Have	Good to Have	Do not Want
- Good communication - Mutual respect - Open mindset - Equal contribution to work - Judgement free environment - Meetings during Wednesday lab - Within hour responses for Urgent, same day for rest	- Chestnut meetings as needed - we have an extra key for [REDACTED]! (not too late :)) - Tasks completed one day before due - Comfortable with calls if not responded	- Ghosting - Don't keep tasks for too last minute - Content deadline and editing deadline - Closed mindedness

Discussion Questions:

- When to meet?
 - Must have time: Wednesday 2-4pm
- Communication standard? - how long until response?
 - Instagram, or iMessages for urgent
 - URGENT - if important rn
 - Dms if just one person - don't spam
 - Response time: Within the day
 - Urgent: Within the hour
- When do we expect to submit assignments by? Who? - 10pm - internal deadline before
 - Internal deadline one day ahead
- How much are we comfortable to share?
- Protocols for conflict resolution and opposing views
- Making decisions
- Resources

Revisited October 16:

- Two internal deadlines:
 - Content deadline 3 days before
 - Editing deadline 1 day before
- Track changes and ask if they are large

Values

- [REDACTED]: Community, Gratitude, Equity, Continuous Improvement

- [REDACTED]: Cooperation, clarity, trust, accountability`Vaisnavi: Resilience, Respect, Empathy, Accountability
- [REDACTED]: Accountability, respect, unity, positive environment
- [REDACTED]: responsibility, discovery, freedom, cooperation

Shared values: respect, cooperation, accountability

2. How to achieve these norms:

How you know when they are achieved (What will you look for):