Weekly Rotating Meeting Roles

Chair

- Sends out the intended agenda before the meeting, inviting team members to add items.
- Facilitates the meeting, ensuring discussions stay on track and focused on key outcomes.
- Encourages participation and keeps the team aligned with the meeting objectives.
- Manages time effectively to cover all agenda items within the scheduled meeting duration.

Notetaker

- Captures high-level tasks, key decisions, and important input (not word-for-word dialogue).
- Sends out meeting notes immediately after the meeting.
- Confirms with the team that the notes accurately reflect action items and key takeaways, ensuring alignment and consensus.
- Helps maintain a clear record of progress and accountability for next steps.

Both roles rotate weekly to ensure shared responsibility and skill development in facilitation and documentation.
